

Bhandarkar Oriental Research Institute

Guidelines for Chairs and Other Positions (Under Infosys Foundation Academic Development Programme)

Deadline for submission of CVs and Project proposals: on or before 15 April 2019.

General Guidelines

Two Chairs, two positions of Visiting Scholars and four positions of Visiting Fellows have been instituted at the Bhandarkar Oriental Research Institute (BORI) thanks to the generous funding received from the Infosys Foundation for specialized research in thrust areas such as:

1. Indological Studies
2. Buddhist Studies
3. The study of India's cultural relations with other Asian countries in the ancient and early medieval period, and
4. The comparative study of religions.

Announcement inviting proposals for the various positions will be made electronically on the website of the BORI as well as on national and international internet platforms.

Curriculum Vitae alongwith detailed project proposals shall be invited from reputed scholars. The format for the necessary information along with the proposal is available on the website of BORI.

Interested scholars should send a letter of interest to the Honorary Secretary of the BORI expressing his / her desire to conduct research at the BORI, together with a current CV and detailed research project. Names of eligible scholars may also be suggested by others along with their CVs and research proposals in the format

The Search-cum-Selection Committee may send the project proposals for blind reviews to the scholars of repute in the fields of study to be covered by the Chair and consider their opinion when finalizing the short list. The Committee shall convey its decision to the scholar concerned in the due course of time. The Search-cum-Selection Committee is authorised to nominate a scholar and possesses the right to accept or reject any name and/or research project.

The Honorary Secretary of the BORI shall appoint the selected scholar to the Chair.

On such appointment the scholar shall enter a standard MOU with BORI

The appointed scholar shall solely be responsible for his/her views expressed in the results of the research project. The BORI shall not be responsible for the same.

The BORI shall be vested with the right to publish this research report.

The scholars appointed in various positions, referred to above, shall be entitled to

- (1) Reimbursement of the visa fee (if applicable),
- (2) End-to-end air-fare and surface transport fare, and

(3) An aggregate remuneration of INR 1,00,000/ per month (amounting to roughly US$ 1400) in the case of Chairs and Visiting Scholars and INR 50,000/- per month, in the case of Visiting Fellows. This remuneration shall be exclusive of his / her earnings elsewhere and shall be governed by the Indian Income Tax Act.

(4) Accommodation facilities or reimbursement of the charges thereof (with a cap of INR 30,000/ per month) in the case of the scholars outside Pune, not having accommodation of their own.

The Chair Professor/Visiting Scholar/Visiting Fellow shall be entitled to the following facilities:

- (1) Workspace with normal facilities, such as computer, stationary, etc.
- (2) Library facilities
- (3) Phone and internet
- (4) Travel in India if necessary for his/her work
- (5) Reimbursement of end-to-end travel expenses once a year for visits home, if the appointment is for two years.

The scheme shall be governed by the law of India, subject to Pune Jurisdiction.

The scholar appointed in either of the positions mentioned above is expected to deliver a public lecture on a topic of his / her current research, mutually to be decided by the scholar and the BORI during his / her tenure. If the appointment is for more than a year, he/she will deliver a public lecture once in a year.

The scholar may offer a special short-term course related to his/her special area of research in consultation with the Honorary Secretary of the BORI. He/she may offer his/her guidance to research students and scholars associated with the BORI.

Before his/her tenure will conclude, a full final report of the research work shall be submitted by the Chair Professor in publishable electronic format.

The BORI may consider the proposals of certain scholars and make a special case, if the Search-cum-Selection Committee makes a recommendation to that effect.

Guidelines for Chairs

There shall be two Chairs, namely, Infosys Foundation Chair and Karnataka Chair. The appointment to the Chair shall be for one to three years, extendable by another term or part thereof.

The Chair Professor shall present his/her ideas and work plan at an academic meeting held at the BORI one month after he / she has taken up the appointment.

The Chair Professor shall present the results of his/her work at such an academic meeting before the end of every year of the tenure.

Guidelines for Visiting Scholars

The Visiting Scholar shall be appointed for one month to six months, extendable by another term or part thereof.

Guidelines for Infosys Foundation Visiting Fellows

The Visiting Fellow shall be appointed for one week to one month, extendable by another term or part thereof.

The Visiting Fellow shall present his/her idea and plan of work before an academic meeting one week after he/she joins as a Visiting Fellow, where the tenure of the Fellow is for one month. If the tenure is less than one month, he/she will make the presentation before the tenure is over and submit the proposal in the light of the discussions within one week after the tenure is over.

For more information and queries, please contact:

Prof. Shrikant Bahulkar
Honorary Secretary
Bhandarkar Oriental Research Institute
812 Shivaji Nagar, Law College Road
PUNE India 411 004
Email: secretary@boriindia.org
Contact Numbers: +91-9272296556 (Mobile)
+91-25656932 (Office)

***